“SPORTS CAP” ROBBER GETS SEVEN YEARS FOR MULTIPLE BANK ROBBERIES

SACRAMENTO—United States Attorney McGregor W. Scott announced today that BRIAN SCOTT TRAYNOR, 42, of Rancho Cordova, California, was sentenced this morning by United States District Court Judge William B. Shubb to 84 months in prison on two counts of bank robbery.

The case was investigated by the Sacramento Violent Crimes Task Force, which includes the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Roseville Police Department, Amador County Sheriff's Department, Grass Valley Police Department, Lincoln Police Department, and Sacramento County Sheriff's Department. Law enforcement dubbed TRAYNOR “the sports cap” robber because TRAYNOR wore baseball-type hats to disguise himself during the commission of his bank robberies.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Michelle Rodriguez, who prosecuted the case, TRAYNOR committed seven different bank robberies between 2005 and 2007, as follows:

- (1) On August 27, 2005, the Safe Credit Union, located at 7475 Madison Avenue, Sacramento, California. TRAYNOR took $1,965.
- (2) On April 11, 2006, the Bank of the West, located at 1011 Helen Power Drive, Vacaville, California. TRAYNOR took $7,000.
- (3) On February 26, 2007, he robbed the Bank of the West again, located at 1011 Helen Power Drive, Vacaville, California. TRAYNOR took $8,450.
- (4) On March 2, 2007, TRAYNOR robbed the Golden 1 Credit Union, located at 6839 Five Star Boulevard, Rocklin, California. TRAYNOR took $4,900.
- (5) On March 10, 2007, the Wells Fargo Bank, located at 340 F Street, Davis, California. TRAYNOR took $5,300.
- (6) On March 21, 2007, the California Bank and Trust, located at 126 North D Street, Madera, California (Madera County). TRAYNOR took $5,530.
- (7) On March 29, 2007, TRAYNOR robbed the Citibank, located at 9601 Greenback Lane, Folsom, California. TRAYNOR took $3,985.

TRAYNOR has prior felony convictions for prohibited acts with a minor and for possession of controlled substances and was on parole at the time he committed the bank robberies. On April 2, 2007, TRAYNOR was arrested on a probation warrant. TRAYNOR pleaded guilty July 30, 2007 to two counts of bank robbery, pertaining to the April 11, 2006 robbery of the Bank of the West and the March 29, 2007 robbery of the Citibank. However, TRAYNOR also admitted committing the five additional bank robberies and was sentenced on that basis. TRAYNOR has been ordered to pay restitution of $37,650 for all seven bank robberies.

After completion of his 84-month sentence, TRAYNOR will be on federal supervised release for 36 months. TRAYNOR was remanded into federal custody to serve the sentence.
